MISS. ALICE GRILLO

DEDICATION

The class of 1970 is proud to dedicate its yearbook to Miss Alice Grillo, for her loyalty, friendship, and general enthusiasm helping the School and Senior Class.

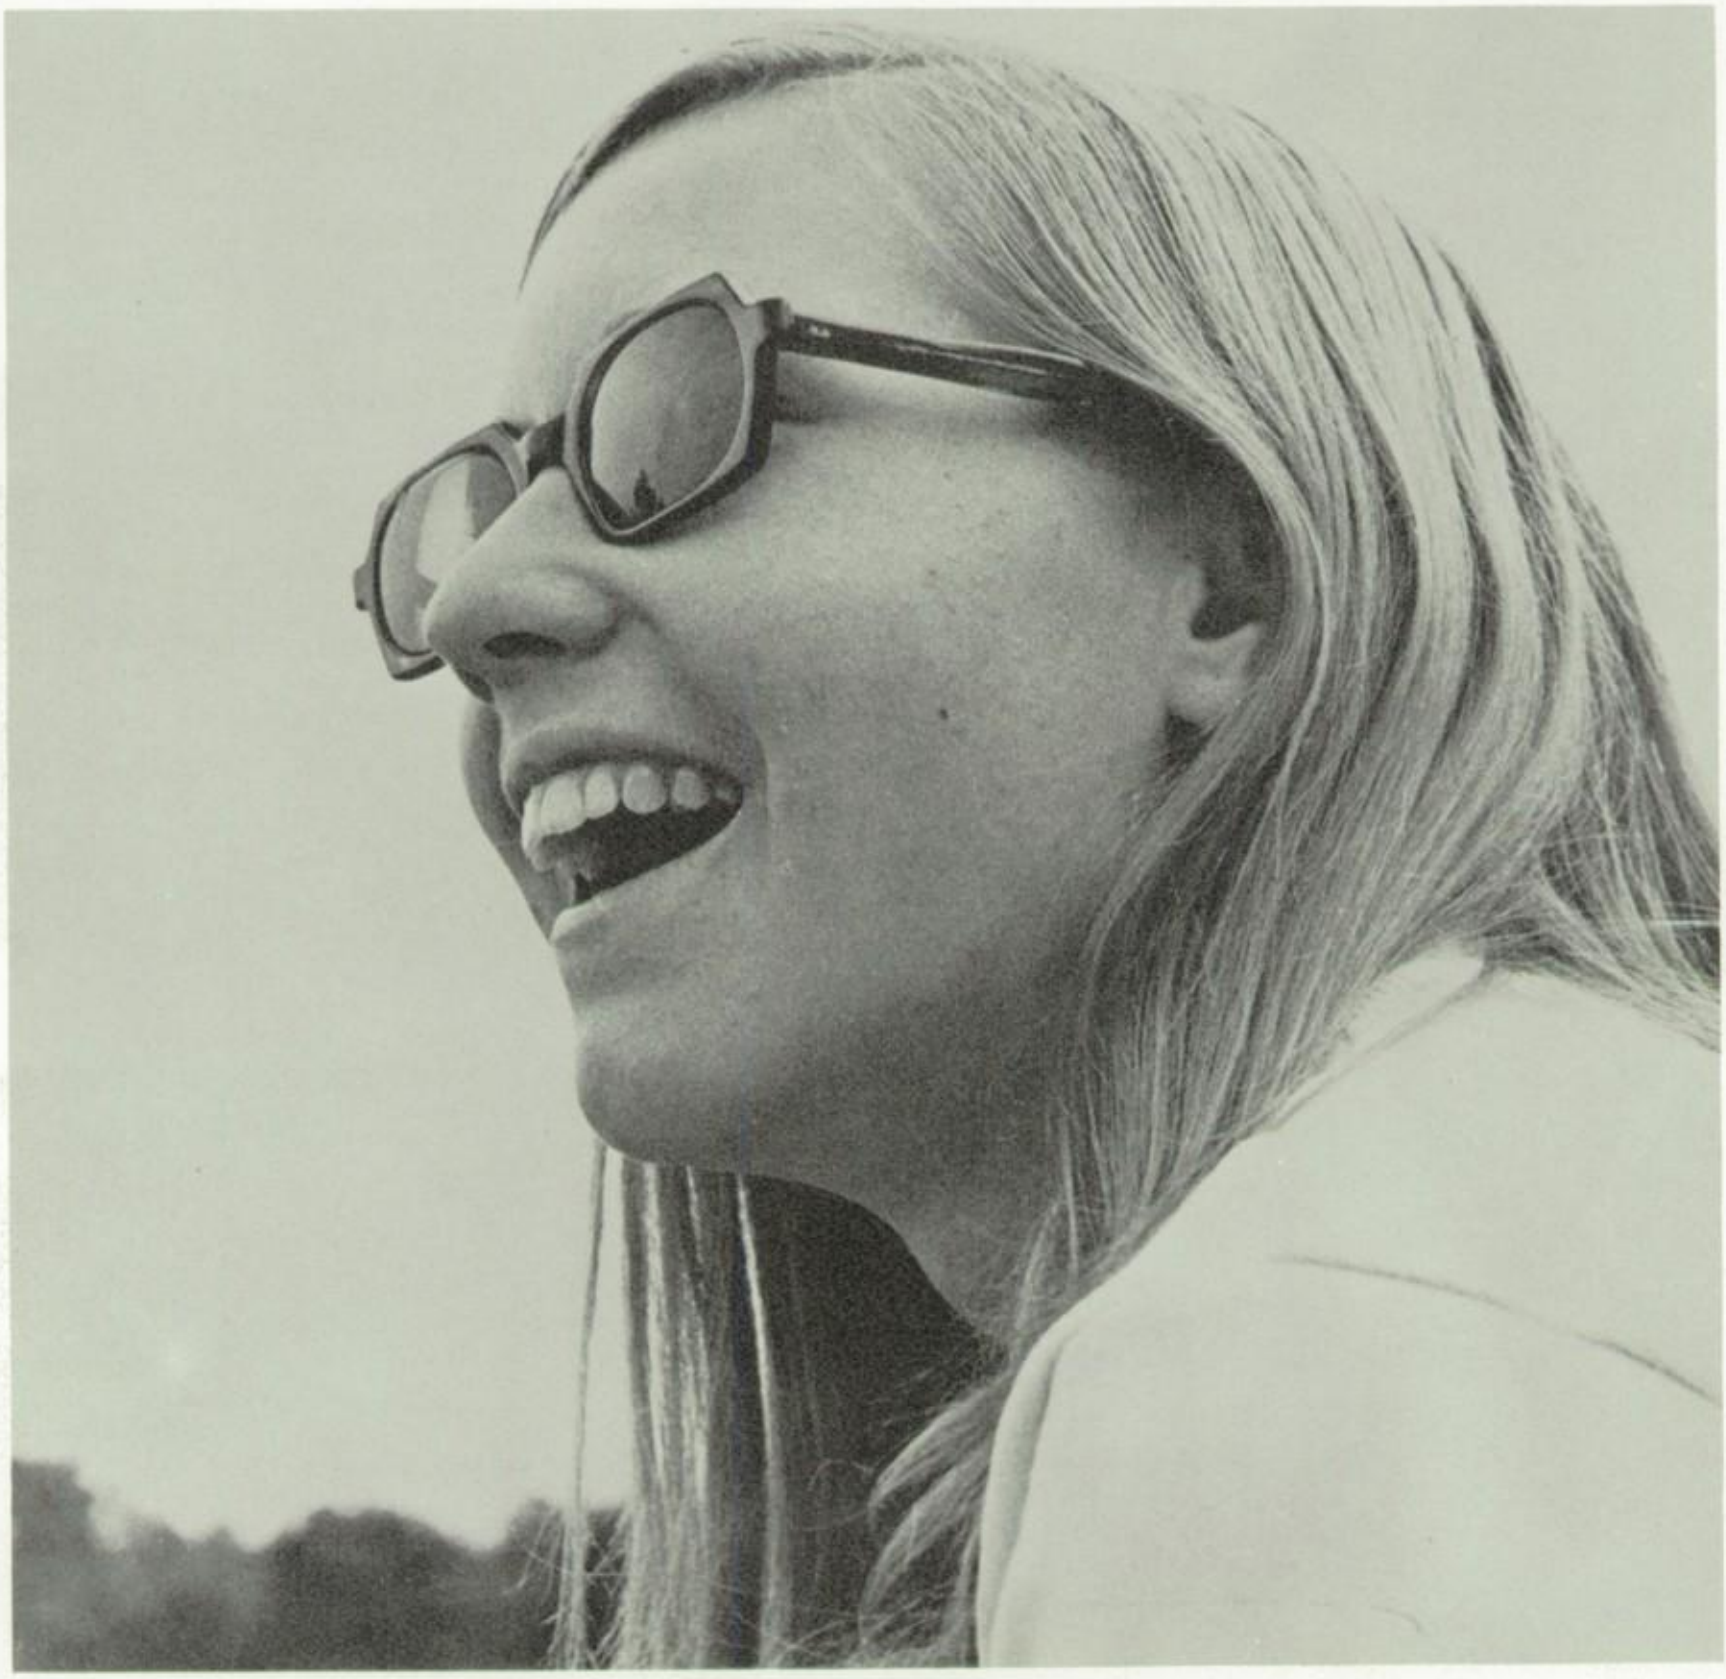
After graduating from Wheaton College, Miss Grillo came to teach at Ramsey High School. She has taught here for twenty-seven years; during this time she has been the Advisor for Varsity Cheerleaders, Bible Club and Junior Class Advisor, entailing the sale of Christmas cards, the Junior play, and the Junior-Senior Prom.

Miss Grillo not only has been active at Ramsey High School but also within the entire New Jersey professional educational system as a member of the Bergen County Educational Association and the New Jersey Educational Association.

Those who have had Miss Grillo in class will always remember her lively discussions and enthusiastic lectures. As time passes we will all appreciate more her efforts to help us become better students and people by the wonderful example she presents. The Class of 1970 dedicates this yearbook to Miss Grillo in appreciation of her dedication to us.

. . . In the time of your life, live - so that in that wonderous time you shall not add to the misery and sorrow of the world, but shall smile to the infinite delight and mystery of it . . .

(William Saroyan)



So writes one author . . . It seems nearly everyone has written or thought something about time . . . perhaps even you.

Take down this book, then,

and slowly read

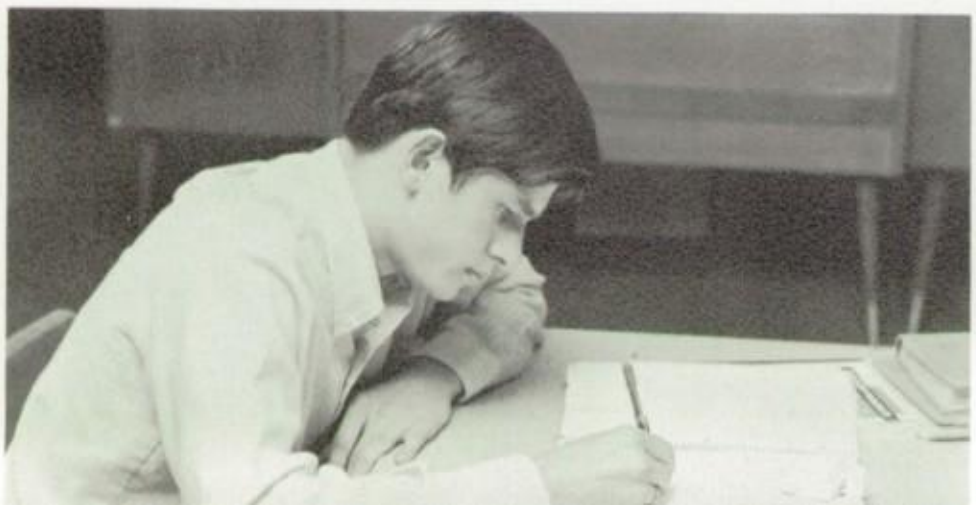
where is the time of you?

These four years have been the time of you --



They were a time . . .

of sudden friendships . . .

There is a time . . .

to mourn . . .

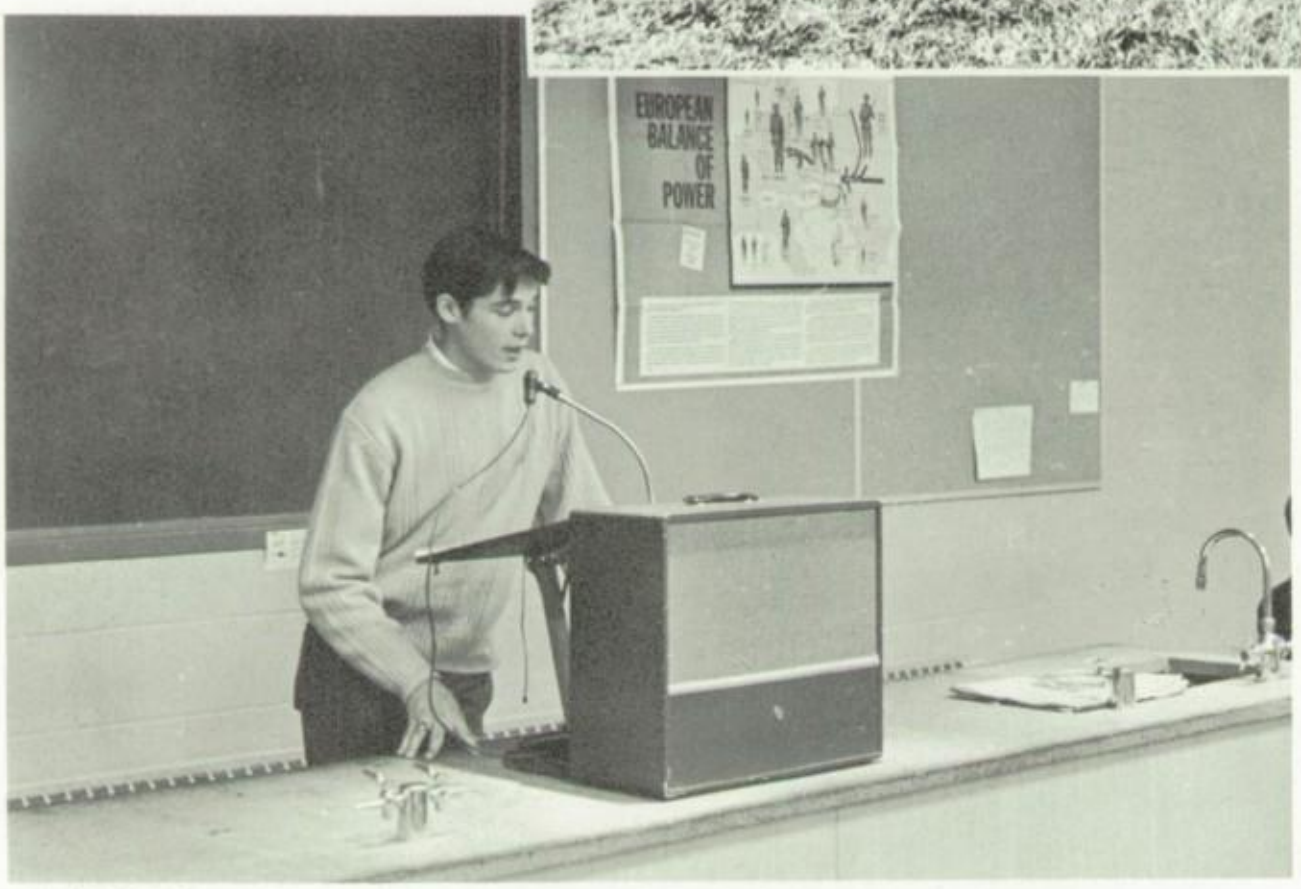
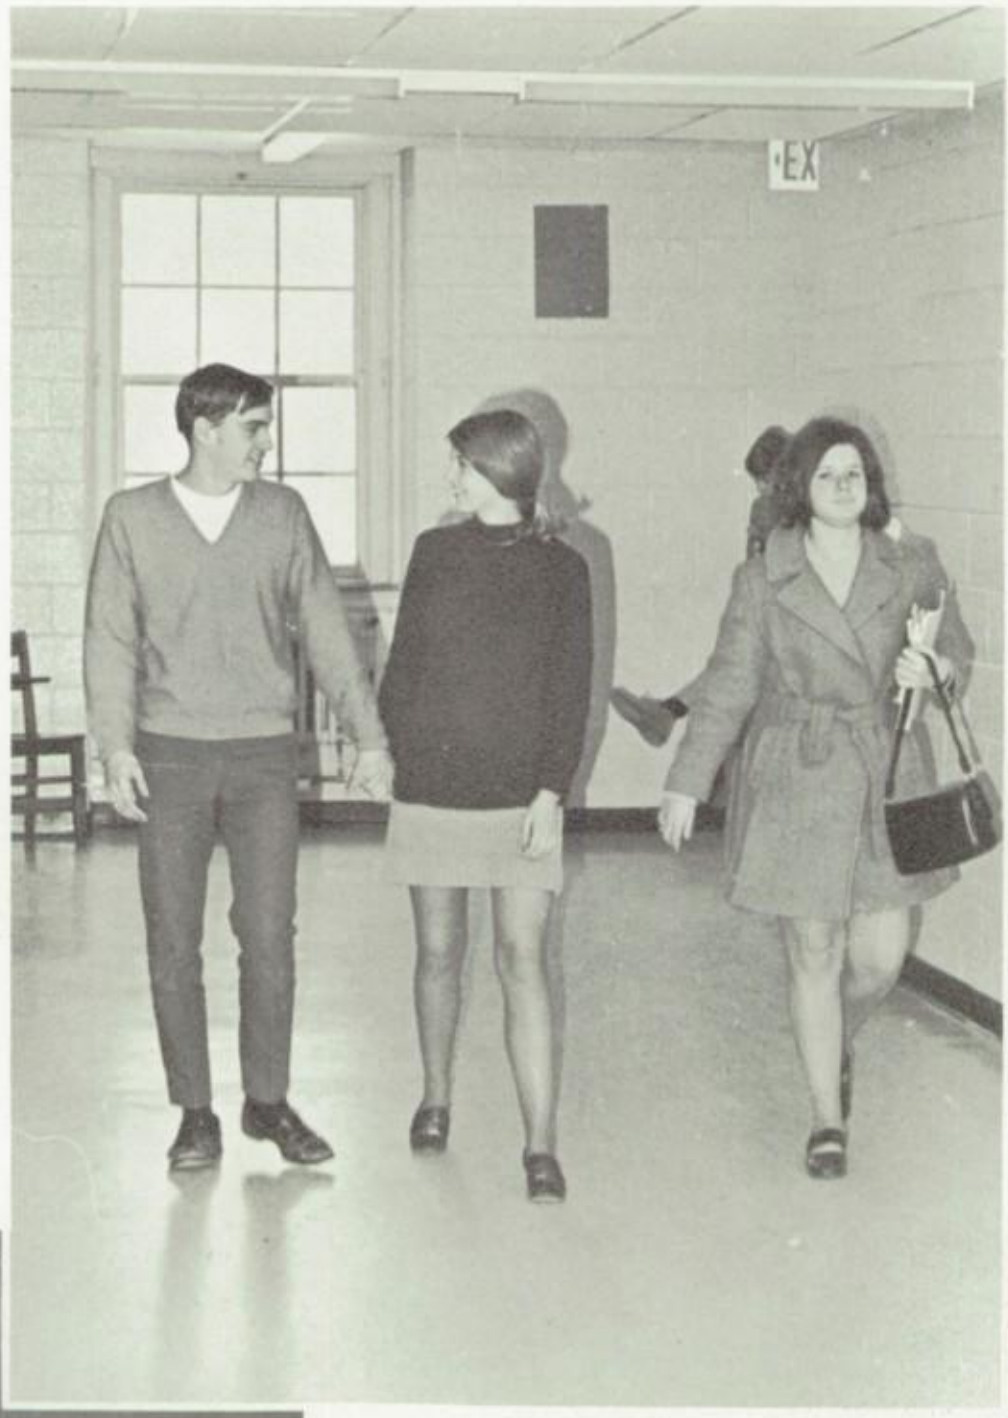
a time to be silent . . .

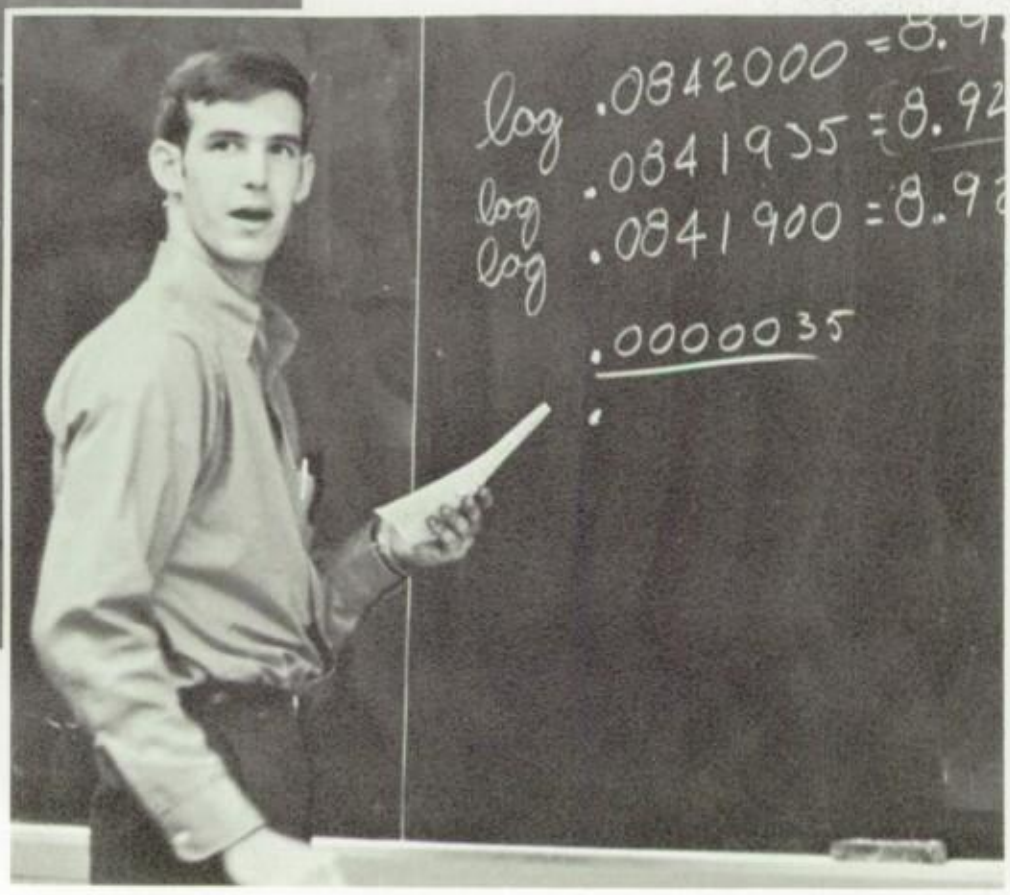


a time to speak . . .

a time to love . . .



to be innocent . . .



to know . . .

The morning of time

when all is changing and full of wonder . . .

All things have their season,

and in their times all things pass under heaven

MRS. MARY C. LAWRENCE

The Nugget Staff would like to pay tribute to Mrs. Mary C. Lawrence who is retiring June 30, 1970.

A graduate of Rider College in 1927, Mrs. Lawrence went on to do graduate work in business and guidance at Columbia University, New York University, and Fairleigh Dickinson University. She has been active in such professional organizations as the Bergen County and New Jersey Business Associations. During her years of teaching in Ramsey, Mrs. Lawrence has developed numerous innovations in the Business Department; the most recent of these is a pilot program in office practice for which the school has received a great deal of state aid.

Mrs. Lawrence will be remembered by her colleagues as a person who was kind, helpful, and loyal to the school. She provided true professional leadership at all times.

History of the Class of '70

Freshman orientation is bewildering for anyone, but we had twice as much school to get lost in! We were told that everything would be ready for use in a few days, and sure enough, in no less than four months the chorus classes moved out of the auditorium. We were asked, prodded, threatened into buying our Freshman buttons——it seemed only the biggest seniors were selling them. We became the humble servants of the upperclassmen for a day, carrying books or lunch trays. Sadly enough, we were the last class to have a real Freshman Day.

Sophomore year was also a great year for English field trips. Massive groups of students saw Taming of the Shrew, Man For All Seasons, Gone With The Wind, and various other movies, leaving the few stay-at-homes echoing in strangely empty corridors. One such day was made even more eventful when heating pipes broke, flooding the second floor, forcing students to miss morning classes and closing the library temporarily. Possibly to provide for any similar emergencies, the sophomore girls were introduced to the first aid course dealing with everything from blisters to childbirth. The Ski Club ended, the result of a broken leg. A highlight of the social season was the computer dance, sponsored by A.F.S., where the sophomore girls found that they were not ideally suited to the senior sports king, or worse, that their ideal date was the boyfriend of their best girlfriend. The year rushed to an end with a promise of a soda machine and we became juniors. Upperclassmen at last!

Junior year was undoubtedly the best so far. We did not have all the responsibilities, being only loweruppers, but we started to feel the rewards. First, Driver's Training, a sprinkling of permits and even licenses. We elected our class officers: president Sam Washington; vice-president Brad Higgins; treasurer Judi Baldwin; secretary Barbara Beesley. Thus organized, with the help of Miss Grillo, we began our Christmas card sale.

We were adjusting by now to our rotating schedule ("How does today go——3,6,7,4,5,8,1?" As soon as we became accustomed to it, we switched to a new schedule. As a result, the lunch periods were shifted to start at 10:30 a.m. Our class cheerfully accepted the "Breakfast Club" and one group of enthusiastic boys brough their coffee and Cheerios from home.

We received an extra vacation that winter when a storm gave us three snow days. Spring soon followed, and the Junior Play, "The Enchanted", by Jean Giraudoux. With Ralph Stenwall, Pam Cottrell, John Finn, Greg Pulis and Charles Pazar as leads, it was a great success. Born too were two other now famous characters, Libby and Leonardo. In their continuing story, "Strife of Life", they sold Ramsey jackets and shirts.

In the midst of all this activity, people were going places. Selected juniors spent a week at Camp Bernie as counselors for the sixth graders. The class of '70 was the last class to do so because the program was discontinued. Other students went with the band, color guard, and majorettes to Delaware for three days, as part of the first band exchange program. Several weeks later, the Delaware band reciprocated with a visit, assembly and concert.

Everyone returned in time for Mardi Gras, the Junior-Senior Prom. Our hard-working class officers planned, decorated and arranged everything for the evening. We were undaunted by the rumors on the morning of the Prom that Club 17 had burned to the ground. Attendance was twice that of the previous year and all who went enjoyed the music of Al Trapkin and the delicious buffet. Many of our close friends graduated in June, leaving us Seniors.

Activities began even before school started in September. Our classmate, Tobi Haberer, spent ten weeks as an AFS'er in Belgium. Our AFS student, Paul Butty, arrived from Columbia. The band spent a week at band camp to make half-time shows the best ever. Soon all sports teams began practice. It was hard to realize that the varsity teams were boys from the class of '70. Cross country had a winning season, as usual. Soccer plays enjoyed a good year, missing the states by only one point. The football team began its season less gloriously, desspite the efforts of all the cheerleaders, the talented and school-spirited girls' varsity, and the boy cheerleaders, recruited from G.U.Y., at our first pep rally. The Thanksgiving pep rally fans were led by another cheerleader, Jeff Oakland, and a new football player, Debbie Tierney, who declared that the Rams would win —— and they did! Ramsey triumphed over the Mahwah T-Birds, 16-12, supplying the seniors with their second Thanksgiving win, and a final victory march.

Activities came faster and faster, beginning with the Student Council sponsored movie, "The Endless Summer", and the Senior Play, "Harvey", by Mary Chase, the cast including Pat SanVito and Ralph Stenwall. G.A.L. and G.U.Y. sponsored a computer dance, the Art Club, an art show and sale, followed by . . . more college board tests. Our class wasn't bothered, having four National Merit Semi-finalists and eight letters of commendation in its midst.

The basketball team for the first time received the recognition it merited. After opening the season with a winning streak, anticipation was great concerning their next difficult game. January 1970 saw the first pep rally for the team. Spirit was high throughout the school, but no one showed it more than Gordy's Gang, members of our enthusiastic senior class.

The senior class was barraged with privileges. The dress code was relaxed, or rather, abolished one sunny day. As seniors, finally we were allowed lunch line cuts, after three years of squashed Twinkies. With the rest of the student body, the senior was permitted to leave early when his study rotated to last time slot, unless he was one of those poor individuals with a stationary study. Seniors were allowed outside during specified studies, or free to skip the last two study periods. Seniors could even cut last period gym! This was really living! In fact, seniors took a lot of excursions —— Behind-the-Wheel driving, several fire drills (—— in the cold, in the rain, and in the snow), and one senior even sprinted across Yankee Stadium for a piece of turf.

Throughout all this activity, however, was an oppressing felling of hurry. Things were coming at us so quickly, there weren't enough hours in the day —— not enough Time. Not time for all the learning, all the laughing, all the singing, all the caring, for all of us, the Class of 1970.

CLASS WILL

The girls on the yearbook staff leave Mr. Dayner a Pooh bear.

JUNIOR CLASS

Like the juniors of '69 and of '68, and of . . . the 1970 juniors sold Christmas cards to anyone and everyone in Ramsey. Due to the mathmatical skills of class treasurer, Sue Asch, and the diligance of Miss Alice Grillo, the class' advisor, the cards sold well and profitably.

In March, with the addition of class rings, the juniors became full-fledged upperclassmen. Soon afterwards, juniors Ricky Corso, Laura Fillmore, Suzette Goebel, and Greg Miller displayed their acting talents in the celebrated comedy, Don't Drink the Water.

Last, but not least, the juniors, led by Allen Lewitz, presented the seniors with the prom. The place was Jerry's Villa in Montvale, the date April twenty-second, the theme, "Aquarius", and the evening, a success. Congratulations, junior class!

Sophomore Class

The Class of '72 also elected officers for 1969 and '70. Dave Connito (president), Debi Little (vice-president), Barbara O'Rourke (treasurer), and Kathy Stiefbold (secretary).

The Class emptied its pockets of $2.00 for dues to their homeroom representatives, pushed on by Miss Tripp, their helpful advisor. Pins and T-shirts made especially for the class of '72 were sold, and an exchange day in March between Ramsey and Northern Highlands sophomores took place, adding to the exchange of ideas between the two classes.

FRESHMAN CLASS OFFICERS

Jack Haberer ..... President
Dennis Barone ..... Vice President
Joann Goven ..... Secretary

Freshman Class

For the first time in many years, every class elected a set of officers. The Freshman Class chose Jack Haberer, Dennis Barone, Betsy Chambers, and Joann Goven to the offices of president, vice-president, treasurer, and secretary.

The class of 1973's contribution to R.H.S. was revealed in their unique effort to sponsor a breakfast dance, which was given the day before Christmas vacation.

With faculty advisor Mrs. Mellin's help, the class also collected $1.00 dues from each member of the class.

HARVEY

Last night the Senior Class presented "Harvey", the Pulitzer Prize winning comedy, by Mary Chase, about a six foot invisible rabbit, and it was marvelous!

The play unfolds the story of Elwood P. Dowd, an eccentric inebriated custodian of a 6 foot 1 and a half inch white rabbit, and the attempts of his sister to commit him to a sanitarium and clear the way for the social ambitions of her daughter. The play was highly amusing with a simple message – that the imagination is a precious commodity and should not be locked away.

Elwood P. Dowd was brilliantly protrayed by Ralph Stenwall. He is an actor of considerable craft. He sees Harvey so clearly that we too are mesmerized into seeing the preposterous bunny. Pat San Vito was magnificent as Dowd's long suffering sister. Georgia Panzironi turned in a marvelous performance as Myrtle Mae, Dowd's niece, along with Gary Pelcak the attendant at the mental institution. The romantic leads, Nurse Kelly and Dr. Sanderson were attractively set forth by Debbie Williams and Paul Bucci. Charles Pazar gives a major performance as the brisk super psychiatrist, Dr. Chumley who finally dissolves at the sight of Harvey. Pam Cottrell was wonderful as the psychiatrist's wife, Greg Pulis a fine Judge Gaffney and John Finn was great as the salty cab driver, Kim Baker skillfully portrayed Mrs. Chauvenet, the fluttering social snob and Nancy Notvest, as the Maid, delivered her line in a beautiful mellow tone.

The six weeks of hard work and great preparation were very evident as was the brilliant and skillful direction of Miss Andrea Dillon, effeciently aided by Student Director Patricia Mayo.

"Harvey" will undoubtedly go down in Ramsey High School theatrical history as one of its all time great productions.

THE CORONATION BALL

The Coronation Ball culminated several weeks of intensive preparation for the members of G.A.L. and G.U.Y. Since the date chosen was February 14, the dance's theme was "Valentine's Day." From 9 a.m. till 2 p.m. hardworkers transformed the gym with red and white crepe paper, big red hearts, a huge silver heart hanging from the center of the canopy, and even a sofa for the chaperones. "Leviathan" and "The Johnny Deen Quartet" provided two very different types of musical entertainment. The coronation, the high point of the evening, proceeded smoothly under the direction of host and hostess Bob Muh and Pat Jerman. Two proud, young crown-bearers carried the crowns to Dave Hollendar and Gail Brightman, Ramsey's 1970 King and Queen of Sports.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Under the leadership of Bruce Barone the 1969–'70 Student Council created more of a unity within the school by asking all club and class presidents to attend council meetings. This year the council succeeded in abolishing the dress code, exchanged students with surrounding high schools, sponsored a movie, "The Endless Summer," and held a dance highlighted by the popular group, "The Fillet of Sole." In addition to these new activities the Student Council sponsored the annual Teacher Appreciation Week and a Talent Show called "Toast of the Towns," which features acts from nearby high schools.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY OFFICERS
President, Bruce Wardell; Vice President, Greg Pulis; Secretary, Sue Moore; Treasurer, Jane Megibow; Advisors, Mrs. O'Toole, Mr. Ufferfilge.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society, whose members are chosen for their qualities of scholarship, leadership, character, and service, inducted 42 seniors into the Ramsey Chapter. Headed by Bruce Wardell, the group was active in 1970: its members sponsored a symposium with the surrounding schools to compare activities, tutored students both within and without Ramsey High, donated money and gifts to an orphanage at Christmastime, and revised the club's constitution and induction procedures.

G.A.L.

GAL are the initials for a latin phrase meaning "Great deeds are increased by labor". The girls in the organization try to live by this motto with such service projects as helping on the Heart Fund Drive, aiding Valley Hospital, and writing letters to Vietnam. Although basically a service club, GAL has co-sponsored, with GUY, a computer dance and the Coronation Ball.

G.A.L. OFFICERS

President, Debbie Graf; Vice President, Debbie Glaner; Recording Secretary, Pat Jerman; Corresponding Secretary, Debbie Ahlstedt; Historian, Karen Edling; Advisors, Mrs. Wagener, Miss Lenge.

G.U.Y. OFFICERS

President, Dave Dandrea; Vice President, Bobob Muh; Secretary, Bruce Wardell; Treasurer, Kris Hasbrouck; Advisor, Mr. Burr

G.U.Y.

GUY is an organization for interested boys who wish to help the school and community. Advisor Mr. Burr has also overseen several other successful activities this year, beginning with a computer dance. GUY members also elect the queens of the Coronoation, which is co-sponsored with GAL. Always a service organization, the club has provided guides for various functions in the school.

A.F.S. OFFICERS
President, Judi Baldwin; Vice President, Barbara Johnson; Secretary, Marsha Brown; Treasurer, Debbie Tierney; Advisor, Mr. Thomas.

Ramsey's A.F.S. Club was, as usual, busy with money projects in 1970. Led by Judi Baldwin, the club's enthusiastic members tramped up and down streets throughout Ramsey asking for contributions in the spring of 1969 and again asked for support from local storeowners to sponsor a concert given by a national "Up With People" cast in the winter of 1970.

Meanwhile, American Field Service students came and went in Ramsey. For 10 weeks Tobi Haberer lived in a little village of Belgium, and soon after her return senior Doug Adams greeted his A.F.S. brother, Paul Butti, who arrived from Columbia. Also, Debbie Rathmell and Laura Fillmore are eagerly awaiting the decision of New York, A.F.S. concerning where they will be placed as A.F.S. students.

Both the A.F.S. school club and adult chapter work together to choose candidates to represent this chapter and to supply the funds necessary to send the students abroad.

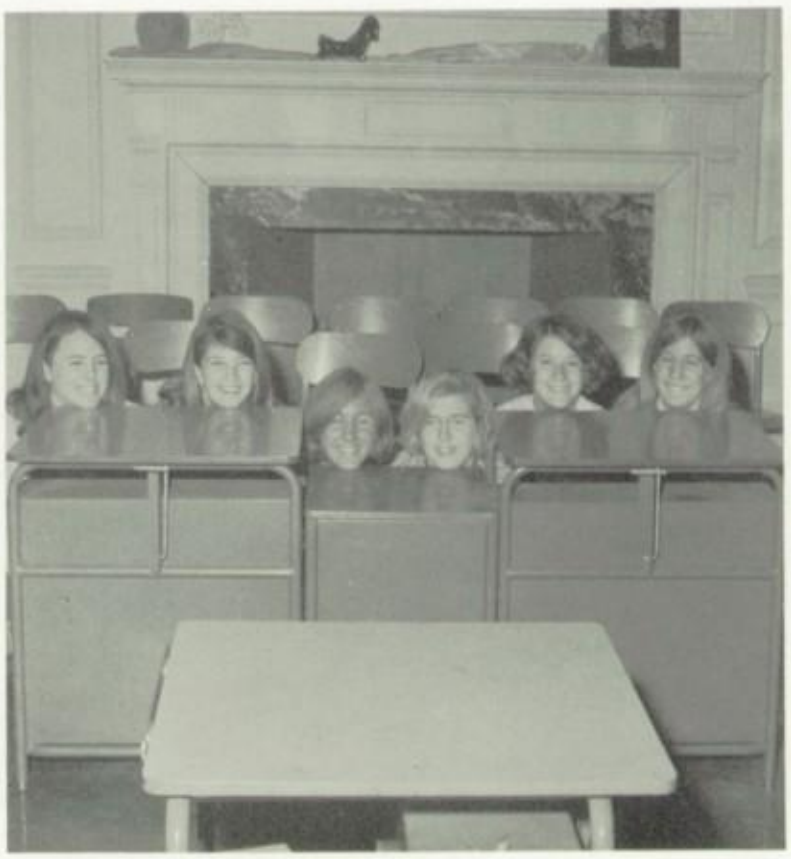
SENIOR MEMBERS

ART CLUB

Any interested student is eligible to join the Art Club which strives to develop a deeper appreciation in the arts. Advised by Mrs. Smith, the sponsored the "Harvest Hoe-Down", a dinner and art exhibition and sale for an impressive profit. This money is placed in the club's scholarship fund which will be given to an outstanding art student.



ART CLUB OFFICERS

President, Wendy Hopkins, Vice President, Karen Edling; Secretary, Pat Mayo; Treasurer, Candee Barry; Historian, Nancy Barry; Publicity, Lynn Beck.

JUNIOR MEMBERS

STAGE CREW

Ramsey High School would be lost without its stage crew. How could the concerts and plays be presented if it weren't for these masters of lights and curtains?? They put in many hours and rarely get recognition, so—— Thank you, Mr. Csentsis and boys!

President, Greg Pulis
Vice President, Mark Holland

AUDIO-VISUAL AIDES

The A.V.A. members operate the audio-visual equipment, more commonly known as movie and film projectors, tape recorders, record players, etc. Frequently giving up their study halls, these students should receive recognition for their constant contribution to Ramsey High School. Formerly a strictly male organization, a few girls joined A.V.A. this year.

President, Mark Holland; Vice President, Gary Lesslie; Secretary, John Gulick; Treasurer, Gary Pelcak.

The Girls' Athletic Association is a service organization to which every girl in the high school belongs. Each physical education class is represented by two elected representatives. The G.A.A. checks the locker rooms, collects towels, manages intramurals, and sponsors the Student-Faculty Volleyball Game.

A.A.

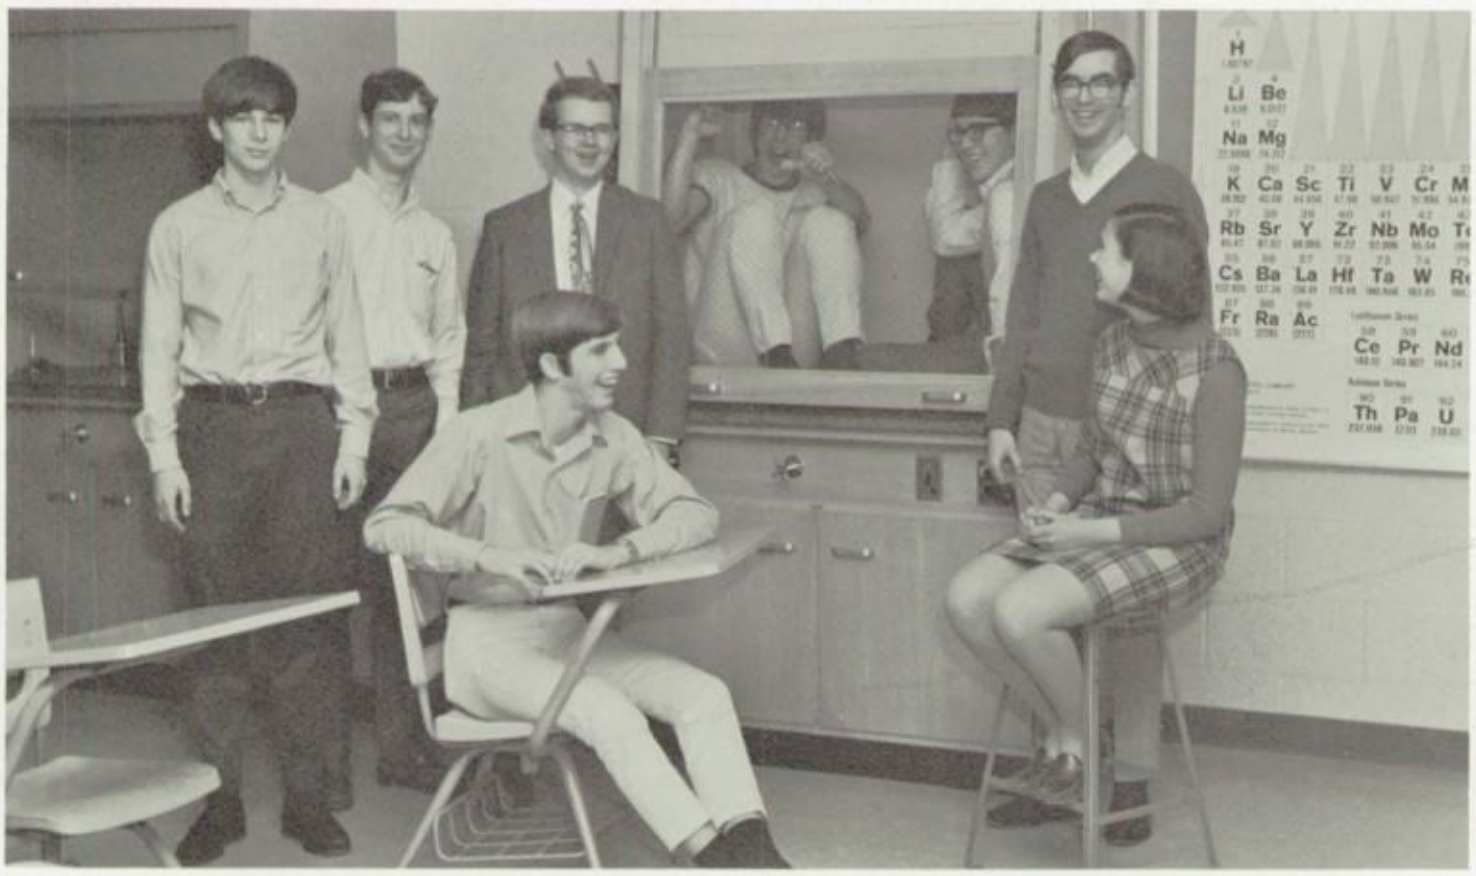
The members of the Athletic Association are interested in sports and are eager to help build school spirit. Under the direction of Mr. Murray, the members supervise the selling of tickets and programs at home football and basketball games and wrestling matches.

LEADERS

Leaders is a volunteer program to aid the physical education department, open to junior and senior girls. The girls sign up at the end of the year and are slected on the basis of their leadership qualities, reliability, trust–worthiness, and all the other traits necessary in assisting in a classroom situation. These girls work with the teachers in the gym and in the office by helping with the numerous details involved in a smooth-running gym program. The chairman of the girls' physical education department, Mrs. Tyler, hopes this program will become a credit course in the near future.

THE MATH LEAGUE

The Math League, sponsored by the math department, meets five times a year with teams from other schools. Students compete on an individual basis, rather than as a team when taking the exams. Awards for outstanding scores are presented at a dinner held at the end of the year.



THE CHEMISTRY LEAGUE

Under the guidance of Mrs. Corizzi, the Chemistry League meets once a month with teams from other schools. By taking exams including all phases of chemistry, the students increase their own proficiency while they compete for honors. Awards are presented at the end of the year for outstanding team and individual records.

CHESS CLUB

The members of the chess club meet in the library after school or during study halls for the enjoyement and mental exercise of chess. The club and its advisor, Miss Wawrzossek, have had a school tournament, and continue their club competition, keeping a running score. Future plans include interscholastic matches.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

The Home Economics Club is open to any girl who takes home economics. Mrs. Koch, advisor along with Mrs. Rebain, says, "The girls are most interested in service to the community, especially some unfortunate area of the community." In keeping with this, the girls did a service project at the Northern New Jersey Training Center. They also went on a field trip to the Good Housekeeping Institute.

FRENCH CLUB

French Club Officers
Claudia Guild, President; Brenda Brown, Vice President; Eileen Kilian, Secretary; Kathy Sullivan, Treasurer.

The French Club consists of students studying French who wish to gain a greater understanding of the French culture. This is achieved in a relaxed atmosphere, exemplified by the Christmas party and the singing of French songs.

GERMAN CLUB

German Club Officers
Debbie Graf, President; Dave Dandrea, Vice President; Kacy Coburn, Secretary; Grace Martin, Treasurer; Nancy Burritt, Publicity.

The purpose of the German Club is to promote a greater knowledge of the German people and their culture through field trips to New York, slides of Germany, and guest speakers.
The German Club is a member of the National Federation of Students of German, which permits a nation-wide exchange of ideas.

LATIN CLUB

Latin Club Officers
Joanne Scott, President; Gail Brightman, Vice President; Diane Strangfeld, Secretary; Ken Cavanagh, Treasurer

The Latin Club meets under the motto "Fiat Lux", meaning, "Let there be light." A Roman Banquet is held as the main project of the year to familiarize the members with Roman history and way of life.

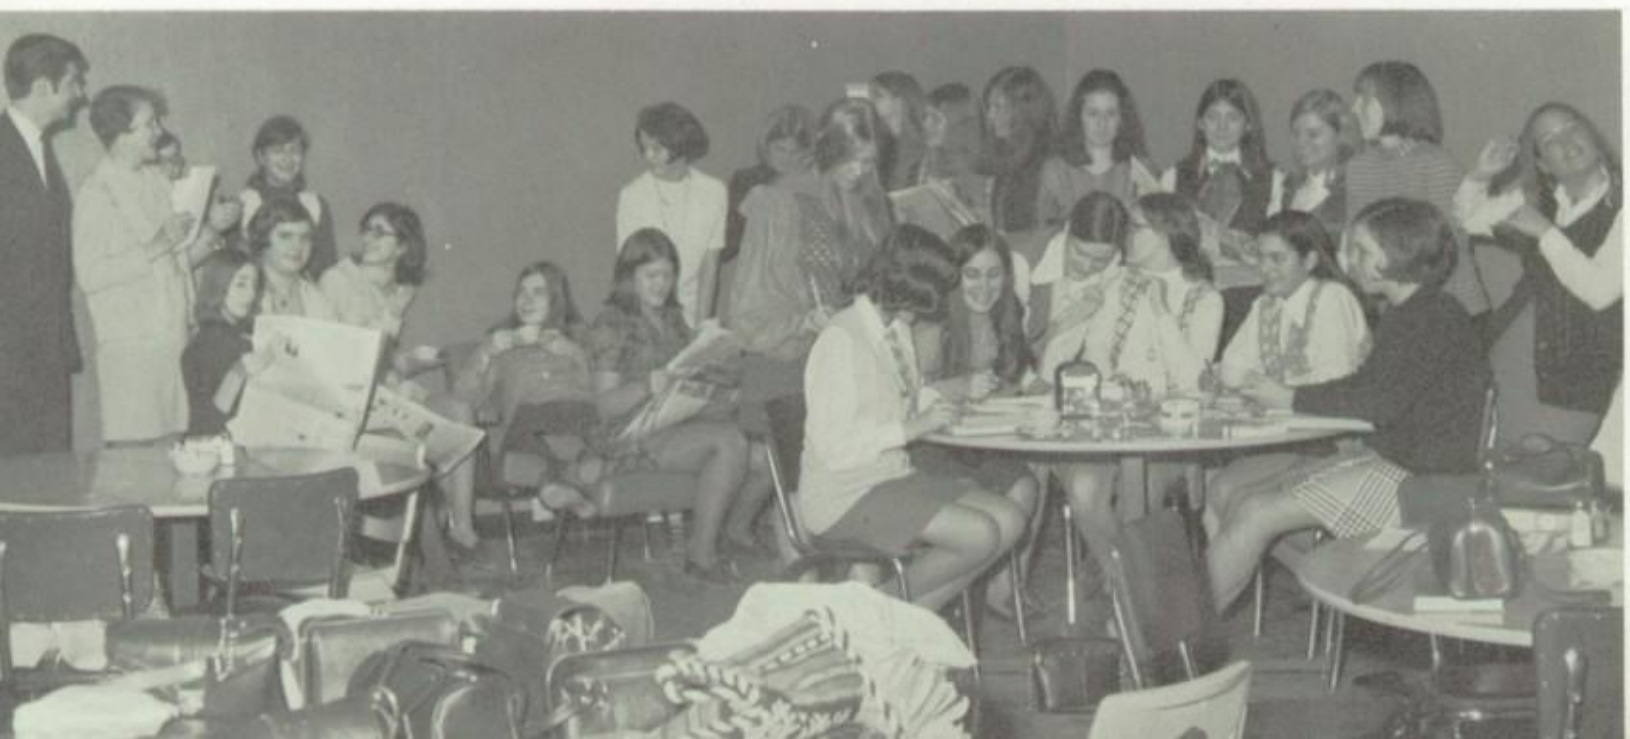
LIBRARY COUNCIL

The Library Council consists of twenty-four students who have willingly given up their study halls in order to help the librarians, and thus learn how a library operates.

THE GENERAL ORGANIZATION

The General Organization is established by the Board of Education to regulate the financial procedures for the school. All other clubs, classes and organizations deposit their money with the G.O. treasurer, Mr. Caputi. Money may be drawn out by a written order to the treasurer. Each year, G.O. approves the school budget for extra-curricular athletic activities.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA



Under the guidance of Mrs Verdin and Mr. Schell, F.T.A enables all interested students t experience teaching i preparation for future careers b exposing them to moder techniques in teaching Annually, the club attends th Blairstown convention at whic they exchange their ideas an goals with other state F.T.A clubs. F.T.A. this yea participated in the Stag Hi tutoring program, lower grad visitation, and was host t various guest speakers.

SENIOR GIRLS' PEP CLUB

The Pep Club was formed this year to support all the sports and all the athletes. School-spirited girls, helped by their advisor, Miss Cheryl Derby, decorated the football players' doors before the important Thanksgiving game at Mahwah, delivered cakes to each "athlete of the month", made posters for pep rallies, and held special days honoring each sport. The Pep Club asked for anyone's help, and attendance was voluntary. Senior Wendy Hopkins, who first began the club, feels "we haven't done as much as we would like to, but we hope that the junior girls will continue the spirit of the club next year."

RAM STAFF

The Ram Staff, under the supervision of Mr. Rudin, produces the school newspaper, the RAM, and a literary magazine, the LAMB. The journalism classes prepare the greater part of the RAM, while contributions to the LAMB are sought from the entire student body.

DRAMA CLUB

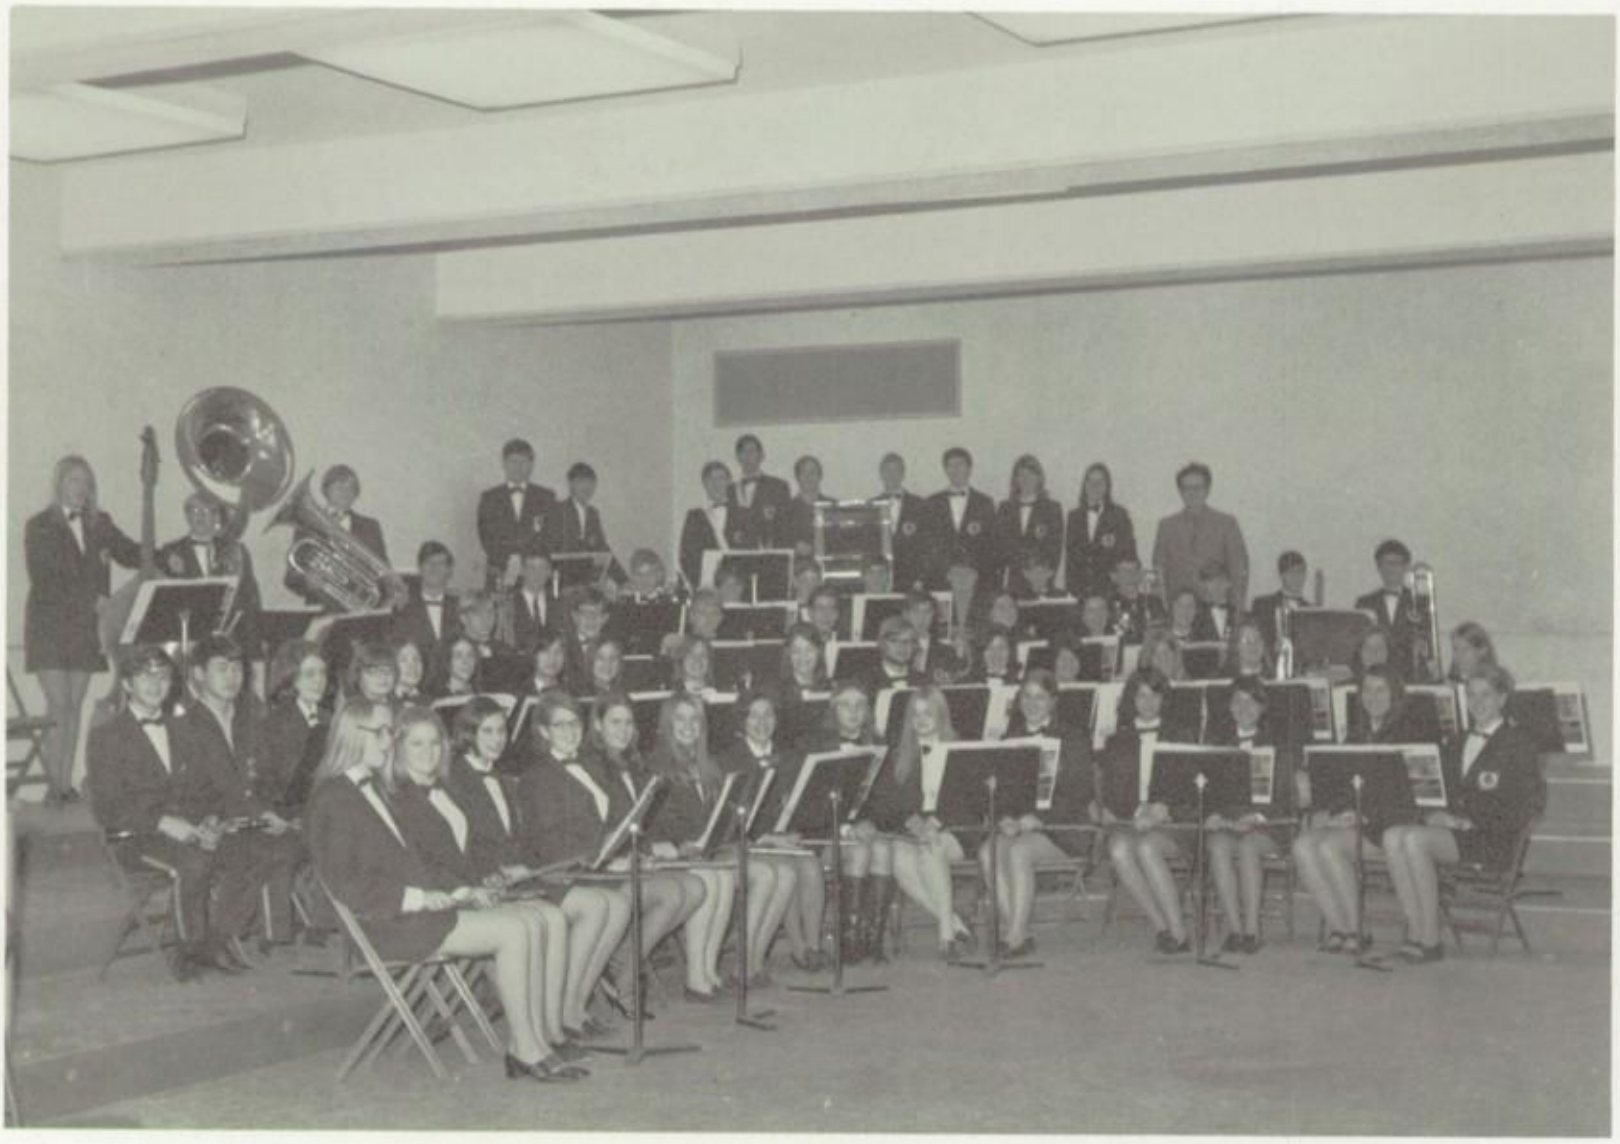
The Drama or Theater Arts Club allows students to persue their interest in dramatics through improvisations, individual scenes from well-known plays, and the performance of one-act plays. In the spring of 1969 the club presented two one-acters, Impromptu, and The Trysting Place at the Eric Smith School, Ramsey High School, and for the Ramsey Players. During the spring of 1970 the club presented Arthur Miller's The Crucible.

WORK-STUDY

The Work-Study program was devised as a way to help students learn practical job skills outside of school while still taking academic subjects. The students involved take the required American History, English, and physical education courses in the morning and leave the High School at 12:00 noon. Then these fifteen juniors and seniors report to work, learning mechanical, sales, auto, secretarial, and clerical skills. The knowledge they gain helps them in choosing a career after high school.

SCHOOL STORE

As practice for a career in merchandising, selling, or displaying wares, some of the girls in the Work-Study program run the school store. They have the help of Mr. Frank George and work co-operatively with the Student Council. Ramsey students have the benefit of the girls' work by being able to buy the pens, lab-books, or gymsuits that they need right in their own school store.



BAND

Under the able direction of Mr. Bednar, the band has established a fine reputation at Ramsey High. All those involved practice hard to perform in two annual concerts. The band is best known, however, for its lively half-time shows at football games, led in 1968 and 1969 by Drum Majorette Diane Strangfeld.

DRUM MAJORETTE

Members of the North Jersey Regional Band Bruce Hossfield, French horn, alternate Candee Barry, Keyboard percussion, alternate Connie Sohna, Flute, regular.

CHORUS

THE FULL CHORUS

Under the excellent direction of Mr. Edwin Cargill, the chorus diligently practices every day to build a greater appreciation of music and a knowledge of its fundamentals. The music sung varies from Vivaldi's "Gloria in Excelsis" to Simon and Garfunkel's "Bridge Over Troubled Water". On April 4, the chorale, a select group from the chorus, sang at Festival '70, an arts program presented at the Edward Williams Theatre, a part of Fairleigh Dickinson University. The full chorus presented two concerts this year; a winter concert with the band, and a spring concert. Two chorus members were in the All-State Chorus this year; Diane Strangfeld, a second soprano, and Bill Ockenfels, a second tenor.

VARSITY "R"

Advisor Mr. Molino calls the Varsity "R" Club a "sort of service club", but in fact it is more than that. It consists of only those boys who have earned a varsity letter, uniting Ramsey sportsmen from all of the eleven sports. Each year the club, with G.U.Y., chooses the Queens of Sports for the Coronation Ball. In addition, this year Varsity "R" bought the school a camera and projector, and gave trophies to the outstanding sportsmen. The club also provided the school with much entertainment at the traditional Faculty-Senior Varsity "R" Basketball Game.

SPANISH CLUB

The Spanish Club meets regularly with the advisor, Miss Derby, to improve their understanding of the Spanish way of life. Paul Butty, the A.F.S. student from Colombia, spoke to the group about his country's customs. Additional information came from trips to a Spanish restaurant and a Spanish museum in New York City.

SPORTS DEDICATION

MR. RICHARD N. MURRAY

For over a decade, Richard N. Murray has served Ramsey High as athletic director, his attitude favorably influencing every student to pass through the gym doors. Here is a truly outstanding man, a leader whose enthusiasm and love of true sportsmanship is mirrored in the character of everyone close to him.

Twenty-eight years have passed since Mr. Murray began his association with RHS, an involvement that has led to many championship teams. He has coached almost every sport at one time or another, though over the past few years doctor's orders forced him to follow a less strenuous and hurried schedule. His basketball teams have been state champs, and his baseball and cross country men were coached to many a league title. The Murray Nuts physical fitness team has saluted its namesake by being a consistent winner in state and interstate events; last year the Nuts were first place winners in New Jersey.

On an individual basis, Mr. Murray has instilled a spirit of loyalty, optimism, and a desire to work and win in the vast majority of his students. His amiable but demanding attitude has made reasonable, physically fit men out of the boys with whom he has worked. He stands as an inspiration to everyone at Ramsey, and, in fact, to everyone who meets him.

We are grateful to Mr. Murray for what he's done over the last few decades, and look forward to working under him in the years to come. Though the athletic department has lost a fine chairman, it will still have an excellent teacher.

MR. JOHN KORBMACHER

For eleven years, John Korbmacher has been an integral part of the Ramsey High School scene, an omnipresent individual concerned with every phase of the athletic program. A generation of boys considers him an institution in the physical education department. At this point we would like to pay tribute to his dedication and service to the school.

Mr. Korbmacher's life has not always been centered around "his kids". For several decades he was proprietor of Northwest Bergen's best delicatessen. Years of work with the Ramsey Ambulance Corps and the Ramsey Recreation Commission prepared him for the variety of jobs he was to undertake at Ramsey High. When offered the job of trainer eleven years ago, he jumped at the chance to become one of the busiest and most involved Ramsey staff members. He wanted to work with young people, and his intentions were satisfied, with interest.

The question, "What has Mr. Korbmacher done?" may be answered in one word: everything. He is, with few exceptions, a jack of all trades (he never played varsity football, even though he was always on the bench). As trainer, he conditions Ramsey's athletes and cares for whatever injuries arise. He maintains complete control over the locker room, the training room and the equipment cage; whatever is done will be done with his knowledge. As "aide de camp" to every varsity coach, he lends his moral support to each team, as well as his skills in handling emergencies and organization. He even served as JV wrestling coach one famous year, but gave it up after he began losing to the varsity heavyweight. So "Mr. K." has been involved in anything nameable when it comes to athletics.

But what he does seems not half so important as what Mr. Korbmacher is. His loyalty and service demand recognition; an energetic, understanding man, he cares for each boy and does whatever possible for everyone. No preferences are shown at any time; "Any kid is my kid", but no one will get added attention. This philosophy of equality demonstrates why he will be distinctly remembered by the Class of '70.

Time, as in every other facet of our lives, also plays an important part in sports. The passage of time at Ramsey High has seen hundreds of athletes come and go, and has witnessed countless performances surpassed and the fall of innumerable records. Time has watched the progression of sports from their inception and growth, and has seen many changes.

Yet in spite of these changes, there is a certain timelessness about sports. Determination, drive, and spirit continue to motivate Ramsey's athletes. The will to win of today's athlete is every bit as potent as that of an athlete a generation ago. The sense of fair play, the all-important factor in sports, still pervades all aspects of athletics in our school. Sports, athletes, and coaches are destined to continually change, but these qualities will remain embodied in sports forever.

FOOTBALL

Coach Bob Reid

Close scores were a part of Ramsey High's football season, and, unfortunately, the hard-working Rams were usually on the bottom. The team's final record stood at 1-7, but those who followed Ramsey knew that they were better than this record indicates.

In the first game, against Midland Park, Ramsey was not at its best and lost by a 32-0 tally. In their next clash, the Rams showed they could play good football, as they lost to unbeaten Indian Hills by a slim 19-12 margin. Ramsey's next two games were heartbreakers——twin 14-13 losses against Glen Rock and Waldwick. These were followed by defeats at the hands of Hawthorne, Manchester and Northern Highlands.

The final game of the season was hopefully the beginning of a new trend for Ramsey. The team traveled to rival Mahwah High School on Thanksgiving Day to pull out an 16-12, come-from-behind win.

Drawing special recognition are the seniors who never gave up although they suffered many close losses. They are: Brad Higgins and Clint Lynch, co-captains; Bruce Barone, Bob Lewis, Eugene Lukas, Dick Many, Bob Nelson, Jack Pritchard, Dan Schmidt and Steve Stathis.

"SOCCER (n.) – A process in which ten men spend a good hour of hard work persuading an elusive ball to enter their opponent's goal. One line man, called a goalie, stays behind the team's own goal to prevent an equal and opposite reaction from occurring."

Ramsey High has been trying to understand soccer for several years now, but only really caught on to the idea during the 1969 fall season. Rival teams no longer smile at the possibility of meeting Ramsey on the field of battle.

The comparatively excellent season ended with a final win-loss-tie record of 7-6-2; the majority of the losses were heartbreakers, however, and next year's squad is looking for revenge. Ramsey is losing a number of fine seniors this year, including the first local player to receive major recognition for his ability, co-captain Rocco Modaferri. Other booters include co-captain Gary Lesslie, Paul Butty, Jim Cartwright, Bob Flackman, John Gulick, Kris Hasbrouck, Dave Hollender, Leon Longchamp and Bob Thompson. In spite of the loss of these men, the outlook for the future is excellent.

CROSS COUNTRY

For the second straight season, the Ramsey High cross country team, led by senior John Fisher and coached by Mr. Louis Molino, set an excellent 12-2 win-loss record. In addition to the fine team performance, a number of individual runners had notable achievements. Captain John Fisher lowered the school course record to 12:08 and was named to the first team All-League and Honorable Mention All-County. Juniors John Johnson and Rich DeGall set a 12:18 junior course record; Johnson was first team All-League and Honorable Mention All-County, while McGall made second team All-League. In addition, Drew Hegeman and Steve Wiersma were named to the number two League team.

In the freshmen division, Ramsey won the N.B.I.L. championship for the fifth straight year. Freshman standout Bill Arata, who set a freshman course record of 12:42, was the frosh County champ.

Coach Molino and the team are looking forward to a fine season next year, despite the departure of five senior runners: John Fisher, Drew Hegeman, John Jones, Bob Muh, and Steve Wiersma.

Ramsey again experienced a fine season on the hardwood. Placing second only to Hawthorne in the N.B.I.L. West, the hoopsters ran up a 14-6 record. Two heartbreaking losses to Hawthorne and an upset by Mahwah were coach Gordon Bedford's only losses in the league. For the first time in Ramsey basketball history, the Rams broke the century mark, beating Northern Highlands 101-51. For the season, the Rams were number 2 in the area in both offense and defense. Ramsey ended its season with a last-second loss to Newton in the state tournament, 59-57. Seniors leaving this year are Paul Bucci, Tom Evans, Pete Hansen, Don Herring, Bruce Jones, Ed Kalis, Ross Kilian and Bruce Wardell. However, next year's team will benefit from the experience of returnees Gene Ferri and Steve Smith, junior guards, and Mark Kramer, forward, now a sophomore.

BOWLING

In its second year of competition, the Ramsey bowling team held first place throughout the season only to drop to third in the final position rounds. Coaches Mr. Unterstein and Mr. Schell, who took over for Mr. Unterstein during his illness, have reason to be proud of this accomplishment. Seniors Jerry Abrams, Mike Connelly, and Tom Oviatt, all members of both years' teams, along with junior John Paravati and sophomore Pat Connelly, did most of the job. Connelly and Paravati form a good nucleus for next year's team, and continued success.

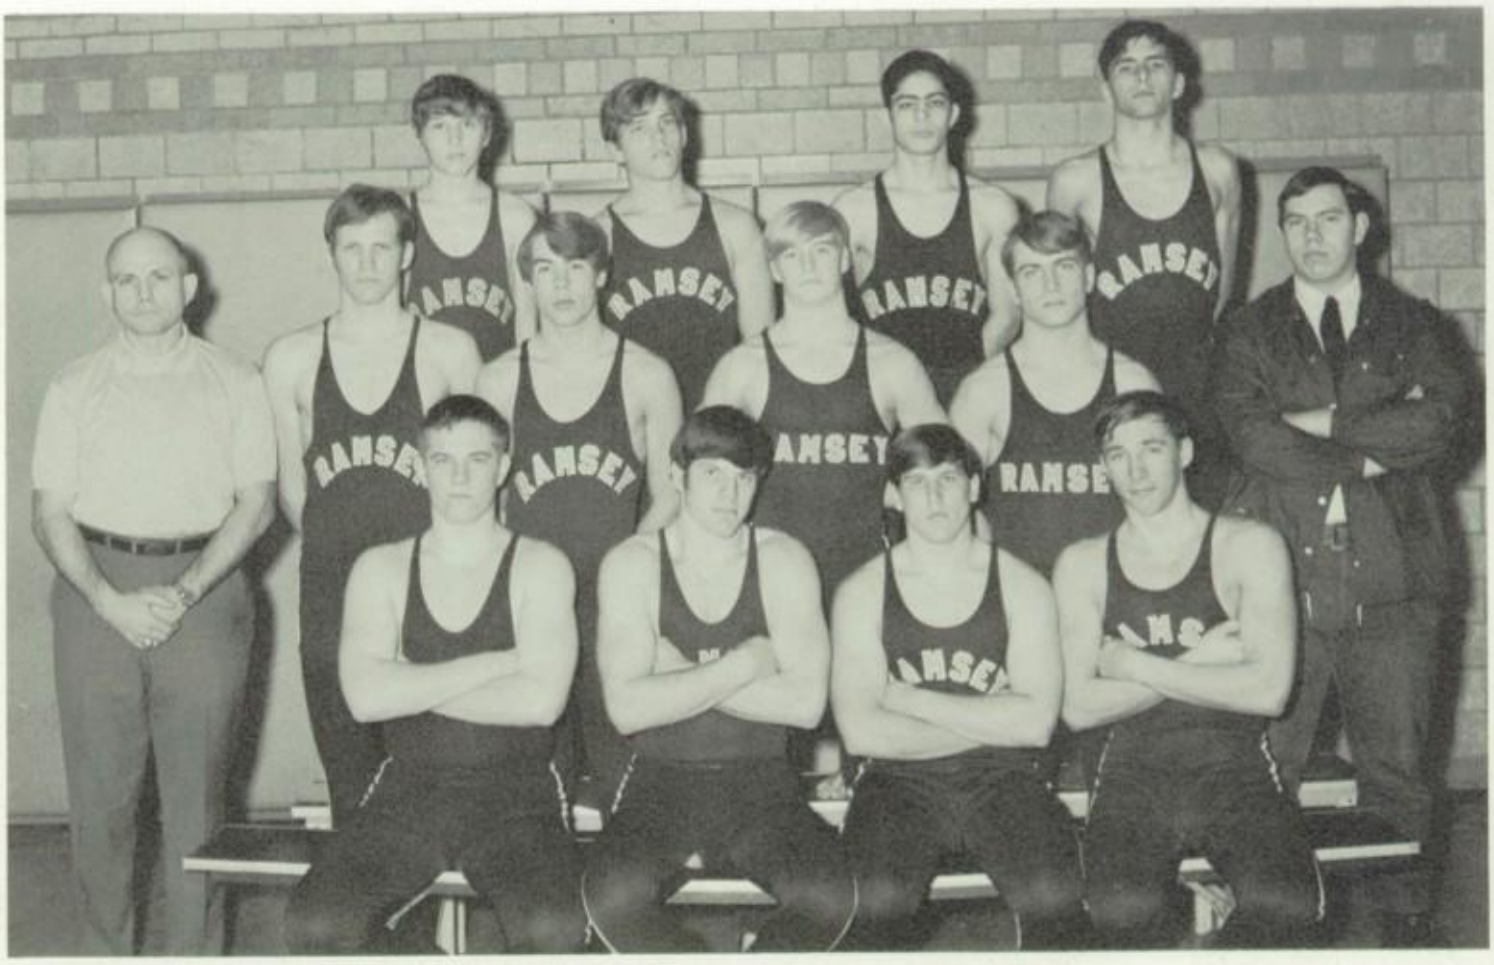
WRESTLING



Coach Art Terhune

This year, facing tough opposition, Coach Art Terhune's wrestling team posted a 6-7 won-lost record.

The season started at the annual Christmas Tournament at Mahwah. Ramsey had three individual winners in Greg Muti, Bob Lewis, and Eugene Lukas. The highlight of the tournament was the selection of Muti as the Most Valuable Wrestler among the ninety-six participating wrestlers.

Thirteen dual matches provided a tough challenge for the Ram grapplers. Co-captains Bob Nelson and Eugene Lukas led their squad past tough teams such as Glen Rock and River Dell. Muti had a 13-0 record for the regular season. Lukas held a 12-1 record while Nelson was 11-2. Bob Lewis was another successful wrestler, compiling a 10-1 mark.

After the regular season, junior Greg Muti continued to win in post-season tournaments. He captured the District II Championship and continued a streak in which not a point was scored against him to an unbelievable 16 matches. Greg then won the Regional Championship and upped his record to 19-0. In the State Championships at Princeton, Greg lost his only match of the year, finishing with a 23-1 season as the No. 3 wrestler in his weight class in the state. This years' seniors are: Jim Giel, Stu Gillard, Gary Lesslie, Gary Letcher, Bob Lewis, Eugene Lucas, Bob Nelson, Dan Schmidt, Barker Torrey.

TRACK

Coach Fred Ufferfilge's cindermen began the 1970 season with great optimism and hopes of vast improvement on a 2-8 record. Much of the team's potential lies with the senior members: co-captains Bruce Barone, Drew Hegeman, Jim Sheriff, and Steve Stathis; Mike Connelly, Sam Culin, Fred Fayerweather, Gary Lesslie, Sam Lewis, Dick Many, Bob Thompson, and Steve Wiersma.

The 1969 season was a good one for the Rams despite an opening slump. Following four straight one-run losses, the Rams won their last ten league games to finish just short of first place. Only two men out of that starting lineup are gone but their replacements are just as capable. Returning are seniors Tom Evans, Ed Kalis, Clint Lynch, Jack Pritchard, Ross Kilian, Bob Flackman, Bruce Jones, Bruce Wardell, Pete Hansen, Rocco Modafferi, John Fisher, Steve Doty, and junior Al Lewitz, who led the club in hitting in '69. Strength is the name of this club, and, with a few good bounces, they should bring a championship to their coach, John Ponchak.

TENNIS

The tennis team, known to other Ramsey High athletes as "they guys with the rackets", worked hard this year in its drive toward becoming the top team in the area. Practice began in mid-March, and prospects for a fine season were very good from the start. Coach Bruce Stead was confident that success would keep coming to the "tennis bums" — the 1969 season netted more matches won than the total number of successes in all previous years combined. Team members, distinctive in the locker room with their gold, day-glow sweatsuits, looked forward to equaling and surpassing that record.

Seniors who contributed a great deal to this season are captain Ken Jacobson, Kris Hasbrouck, Gary Pelcak, and Greg Pulis.

The Ramsey High golf team took to the greens this year with the outlook for a good season —– one which will surpass last year's 8-3 win-loss record. Although the team is made up of many new members, Coach James Robertson bases his hopes on the abilities of senior veterans Bob Anthony, Neil Silverman, and Dan Schmidt, and the backing of a junior contingent headed by Gene Ferri and Charlie Von Dreusche. With a good turnout of younger golfers, the future looks bright for the team.

MURRAY NUTS

Over the course of the past four years, this hardworking team has captured three State Championships in physical fitness. Throughout the school year, the boys practice squat thrusts, pull-ups, push-ups, sit-ups, and running in preparation for the annual Marine Corps physical fitness meet. Mr. Richard Murray, coach, along with co-captains John Gulick and Steve Stathis, hope to add yet another victory to the growing chain of championships.

Although outwardly a Nugget staff member seems like any other RHS student, he is actually a rare type of creature with peculiar habits. During the fall and winter, he can usually be located by day in the Nugget room among reams of paper and folders of candids, cutting and pasting copy. Late into the night, he can be found behind a typewriter turning out carbon copies of everything. Most frequently, however, staff members are found rushing from deadline to deadline, avoiding their exacting advisor, Mr. Dayner. Their "Chief," Ralph Stenwall, is attended by two associates, whose collective cry to the rest of the staff is, "We need it yesterday!" In the spring their habits change, when the staff is seen, idle and smiling, waiting for the finished 1970 Nugget.
